

Confirming your Submission

Digital Receipt

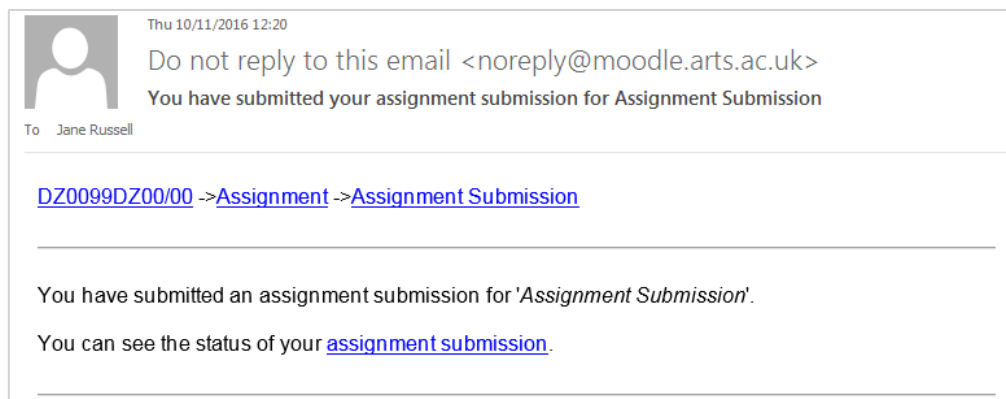

You will see the following if successful:

The screenshot shows the Moodle interface for an assignment submission. The top navigation bar includes 'Courses > Introduction to Moodle > Course Information > Assignment Submission'. The left sidebar contains 'Administration' options like 'Course administration', 'Switch role to...', 'Return to my normal role', and 'Site administration'. The main content area is titled 'Introduction to Moodle' and 'Assignment Submission'. Under 'Submission status', a table shows: Submission status (Submitted for grading), Grading status (Not graded), Due on (17/11/16), Time remaining (6 days 11 hours), and Last modified (10/11/16). Below this, there are links for 'File submissions' (Assignment - abc12345678) and 'Export to portfolio'. At the bottom, there is a 'Submission comments' section with 'Comments (0)' and an 'Edit submission' button.

Email Receipt

You will receive an email like this if your submission is successful:

The screenshot shows an email receipt from Moodle. The header includes a profile icon, the date 'Thu 10/11/2016 12:20', and the text 'Do not reply to this email <noreply@moodle.arts.ac.uk>'. The main body of the email states: 'You have submitted your assignment submission for Assignment Submission'. Below this, it says 'To Jane Russell'. A blue link is provided: 'DZ0099DZ00/00 ->Assignment ->Assignment Submission'. The email concludes with: 'You have submitted an assignment submission for 'Assignment Submission'. You can see the status of your assignment submission'.

If you cannot find this in your Inbox please check your email Clutter, Junk and Deleted folders for emails sent via Moodle. Office 365 appears to be placing these emails into those folders.

For further information on email and clutter please see: Email & Personal Storage for students
